

Hope By Jude H

Hope is the light at the end of the tunnel
It's the flicker of light in the darkness
Something that you cling onto
During all this madness
The world has come together
And we are stronger than ever
Look forward to normal life
For things to be better than ever
This grueling journey has been a ride
And new beginnings are bound to arrive
Think of all the fun we've had
Some things good, but others sad
Think of all the good that has come out of it all
And all our achievements, some large, some small
So let's hold our heads up high
And sing our praises to the sky
And let's hold that glimpse of hope and may it survive.
